Global expertise

It takes a lot to keep the oil and gas industry running smoothly. But GAC has the resources, coverage and expertise to do just that.

You need on-time delivery of materials from vendor to rig floor, and then back again? Think GAC and its seamless visible supply chain solutions.

Or perhaps you're looking for a professional supplier to take care of PO management, collection and transport, packing/crating, freight forwarding, warehousing, customs clearance and prompt and efficient delivery? Again, think GAC.

We also provide agency services for rigs and vessels, arrange charters, provide bunker fuels, provisions, quayside assistance and waste management solutions – all with strict adherence to HSSE (Health, Safety, Security, Environment) and FCPA (Foreign Corrupt Practices Act) regulations, wherever you go.

It all comes under a single unique service, so you only need to think GAC once.

GAC provides a package of services for the industry including:
