Select GAC Workwear for a range of work apparel and accessories that combine style, comfort, functionality, durability and safety

Customised work apparel solution from design to manufacturing and distribution

GAC Workwear - Powered by Fristads, a strategic alliance between GAC and global apparel manufacturer Fristads, provides a full range of cost effective, customised maritime workwear with maximum comfort, functionality and safety.

GAC Workwear combines GAC's knowledge of the challenging conditions faced by seafaring personnel in the maritime industry with Fristads' market leading position in product innovation to deliver a complete work apparel solution from design to manufacturing and distribution. It enables you to procure quality work apparel, gear and accessories directly from the manufacturer, stored in convenient locations around the world and delivered to any preferred spots including vessel decks.

Well suited for tropical or arctic climate, our products range from safety shoes to hard hats. Our comprehensive designs also cover apparel and accessories that can be worn anywhere from the vessel deck to the engine room.

Key Features

- Safety-assured
 Majority of GAC Workwear products are certified according to the international standard Oeko-Tex. It is guaranteed that no substances hazardous to health are used in the manufacture of the garments.
 - Functionality and branding
 Through meticulous customisation, GAC Workwear's designs not only conform to your company's standards and guidelines, but our creativity will also help enhance your corporate brand image. This is the result of precise development work and close collaboration with the end users. A wide selection of apparels and accessories is available to ensure that your workforce is professionally and safely dressed.
 - Value for money
 There are no short-cuts to achieve top quality. Some products may look alike, but on closer inspection, you will recognise the unmatched quality and durability of the GAC Workwear label. "Twice the wear is half the price" is our guiding philosophy.
 - Staff retention/performance improvement
 A company that provides professionally-made and quality uniforms stands a better chance in attracting and retaining staff. Studies have shown that such focus on staff welfare instills pride and boosts morale which ultimately leads to overall performance improvement.
 - Rigorous tests - from labs to real life
 Abrasion resistance, tear and tensile strength, colorfastness and shrinking are some of the tests continuously carried out in our laboratories. Another important part of product development is to listen to those who use our label everyday. The feedback received makes it possible for us to modify and improve our products continually.
- So rest assured GAC Workwear products go through rigorous tests and inspections before they make it onto the racks.
